

Introduction to the Nemuro Footpath routes

ATTOKO ROUTE

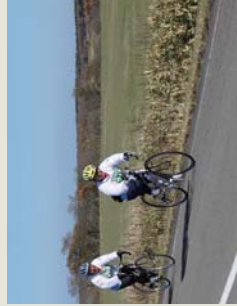

On the Attko pasture route, you can look back in time to the days of the pioneers, by visiting the old horse path and the old train line.

Mono-omoi ni Fukeru Oka (literally translated "a hill to be lost in deep thoughts")

HATTAUSHI ROUTE

The Hattaushi Route is an operating agricultural road for the existing farms, and paved sections give you opportunities for cycling fun.

BETTOGA ROUTE

Of the three routes, Bettoga route is remarkable since this is the only route with a breathtaking view of the ocean and presence of alpine plants.

Dining and accommodation (camping)

Grassy Hill dairy restaurant within Ito Farm on the Attko Route offers dishes that specialize in the use of Hokkaido produce, such as beef stew and cheese doria, as well as desserts made by patissiers, milk and original soft served ice cream. Also on sale are cow motif goods and authentic feeding bottles for calves. Accommodation (camping) is also available at the Tick-Tack Camp Ground within Tomioka Farm on the Hattaushi Route. The area surrounding "Kuttara" hands-on experience center for processing agricultural products is also available for pitching tents, as well as baking homemade pizzas in the pizza oven and enjoying barbecues. In addition, accommodations such as hotels and guesthouses are available in Nemuro City.

Hands-on Experiences

You can get closer to nature on Ito Farm with pasturage experiences such as milking and feeding cows, and making butter. At "Kuttara" hands-on experience center for processing agricultural products on Ogasawara Farm, you can enjoy experiences of making soba noodles from local buckwheat flour or authentic ice cream and sausages that can only be found on farms.
